THE TOTALLY PAMPERED GIRLS' TOUR of Quintana Roo and Yucatán, México

Day 1

Arrive Cancún International Airport and embark on a tour of pampering. Chauffeur-guide driven, air conditioned sedan or van. Overnight at the Presidente Intercontinental Hotel, with its tropical ambience and overlooking the shimmering Caribbean. Wind-down massage in room upon arrival.

Day 2

Breakfast at the Presidente Intercontinental Hotel. Free tennis and water sports. Cancun's most gorgeous, widest and safest beach is part of the hotel, and a great shopping mall sits across the street. Overnight at the Presidente Intercontinental Hotel.

Day 3

Breakfast at the Presidente Intercontinental Hotel. Departure from hotel to Ek Balam, the "Acropolis" of ruins of the Mayan culture, center of the Kingdom of Tah. Here one finds the tomb of King Ukit Kan Lei Tok. Visit the colonial city of Valladolid, a landmark in all of Latin America. Valladolid was founded in 1543 to subjugate the indomitable, warlike Cupul Maya. Optional lunch at the Meson del Marques Restaurant. Arrival at the Hacienda Chichén Resort in Chichén-Itzá. Al-fresco dining on the garden grounds and leisurely time by the pool. Optional Mayan massage and/or healing. Overnight at the Hacienda Chichén Resort.

Day 4

Breakfast at the hacienda. Morning visit of Chichén-Itzá, world famous ruins of the capital and astronomical center of the ancient Mayan empire and culture. Noon, departure for the Hacienda Temozón in Abalá, visiting en route the colonial city of Izamal (sacred city of Mayan pilgrimage since 300 B. C., a city of ochre facades, horse-drawn carriages and cobble stone streets.) Optional lunch at the Kinich Restaurant. Overnight at the Hacienda Temozón. The Hacienda was built in the 16th century and has 26 luxurious suites.

Day 5

Breakfast at the Hacienda Temozón. A day to enjoy the Hacienda grounds, activities and SPA. Visit to the Underground River and waterhole Cankiriche "Cenote." According to Mayan belief, the underground rivers were sacred and meant to cleanse body and soul. Overnight at the Hacienda Temozón.

Day 6

Breakfast at the Hacienda Temozón. Lazy morning hours. Check out noon. Lunch at the Hacienda Ochil, a testimony to an enterprising Mexican society. Drive through the Mayan towns of Abalá, Muna, Opichén and Maxcanú. Arrival at the Hacienda Santa Rosa de Lima in Maxcanú. Luxuriate yourself in the Hacienda's offers. The Hacienda was constructed in the 19th century; it has the atmosphere of a nobleman's private estate and offers 11 luxurious suites. Overnight.

Day 7

Breakfast at the Hacienda Santa Rosa de Lima. A day to enjoy the Hacienda grounds, activities and SPA. Overnight at the Hacienda Santa Rosa de Lima.

Day 8

Breakfast at the Hacienda Santa Rosa de Lima. A day trip to the national park Celestún Ría, home to thousands of pink flamingos, mangroves and wildlife. Optional lunch at and visit of the Eco Paraíso Xixim Hotel, a pearl of a resort in pristine nature, with a gorgeous beach. Arrival at the Fiesta Americana Mérida. The white city of Mérida, with five centuries of colonial charm, was founded in 1542 by Spanish Conquistador Francisco de Montejo el Meso. Mérida has one of México's most varied cuisines. Nightlife and overnight at the Fiesta Americana Mérida.
